KEY FACTS

COMMUNITY PROFILE

Tillsonburg is located in the heart of Southwestern Ontario just south of Highway 401 and directly on Provincial Highway 3. It is connected to the 401 by Highway 19 and enjoys quick and easy access to the remainder of Ontario and the United States through either of these routes.

Tillsonburg is located midway between the border crossings of Windsor/Detroit, Sarnia/Port Huron and Fort Erie/Buffalo. This provides a distinct advantage for companies locating here.

Highways 19, 59/13 and 3 provide access to Ontario's South Coast and the Long Point recreation area, which has been recognized as a United Nations' Biosphere Reserve

Tillsonburg is home to numerous, high-tech manufacturing companies and a growing food processing sector. Other emerging sectors include retail services, construction, health care and FIRE (Finance, Insurance and Real Estate).

Tillsonburg takes pride in cultivating a dynamic and supportive business environment for its diverse and resilient economic sectors. Local businesses gain competitive advantages from proximity to regional clusters, through supply chain benefits and economies of scale. Exciting opportunities exist for strategic partnerships and industry collaboration, centred around shared interest and mutual business needs.

Tillsonburg has a strong and diversified economy with strengths in a number of sectors including manufacturing, retail, accommodation and food services, health care, and agriculture.

The Town has an estimated workforce of 7,390 persons with 46% having some post-secondary education. Within Oxford County, the workforce is projected to grow from an estimated 53,000 persons to 71,000 by 2031.
